

Pastoral Notes

'What have you done for me lately'- Num 21:1-5.

One thing all humans have in common is dealing with disappointment from people we have helped and sacrificed for in the past. All too often, peoples focus is on 'what have you done for me lately'. But when you think about the one who's sacrifice goes far beyond anything you have ever done, you will see that even Jesus, had to deal with disappointment.

greater than any problem that is happening to you. However big your problem is, know that God is bigger. Learn to TRUST IN God and to WAIT ON God. Don't mistake God's delay of a blessing as a sign of its denial. While you think you are waiting on God, more often God is waiting on you to show you are ready to receive what he's already declared to be yours.

The Israelites asked God to bless them with a battle victory and God granted their request. Yet

Key Sermonic Points:

1. What is dwelling in you is greater than what is happening to you
2. With God, delayed does not mean denied
3. Don't be a 1 verse Christian

People will love you and leave you; use you then abuse you. Coaches will not play you and some of your homies will not repay you. Their focus will not be on what you have done, but what you have done for them lately. There is some solace in knowing that disappointment is as old as the bible. Many people like Adam, Eve, Cain, Moses and most of the nation of Israel, all disappointed God.

Never lose sight of the fact that a part of God lives on the inside of you. The Holy Spirit that dwells in you is far one verse later, they began complaining & questioning Gods judgement. Don't you be a 1 verse Christian and start doubting God 1 verse after he healed, blessed, comforted, or delivered you. Rather than ask God 'what have you done for me lately' ask yourself, what have you done for God lately.
