

Pastoral Notes

“All for One” Acts 2: 44-47.

This week we continued in Part 4 of our ‘Ships of the Church’ series. We journeyed on the ‘Fellow-ship’. We saw how the first church in Jerusalem began to fellowship immediately after the Pentecostal outpouring of the Holy Spirit. They important question. If everyone in the church were just like me, what kind of church would our church be? When people learn of a church where people fellowship and share, I believe they will want to be part of that church. CTC was built on Deaconate families that met periodically outside of the walls of the church

Key Sermonic Points

1. Fellowship brings about “Togetherness”
2. There should be ‘frequency’ in Fellowship
3. Good Fellowship gains us Favor with God & People made a conscious effort to break bread together in homes where they prayed; as well as played together. As a church family it is important for our membership to fellowship so we can get to know each other and be a help to the body of believers God has placed at CTC.

I asked each of us to ask ourselves an

FELLOWSHIP:

- Is something we must choose to do
- While Sunday is a day for Worship, there is no set day or time to Fellowship
- There are many Spiritual Gifts and Talents that we can get to know through our interactions with one another
- Our salvation is personal but our obligation to the Universal body of Christ is a team effort
- Christians are not meant to be independent or dependent, but interdependent

We will continue in our “Ships of the Church” series. The next ship to sail is the FRIENDSHIP!
