

Pastoral Notes

“Clean up what I’ve Messed Up” Ps 51: 1-10.

All of us have mastered the art of messing up. On our jobs in our relationships and in our homes, we have experienced messing up something we could not clean up. David’s indiscretion with Bathsheeba serves to prove that fact. God

They ask for mercy and favor.

If we could turn back the hands of time, we would likely spank ourselves for some of the mess we allowed ourselves to get into. But because of God’s unfailing love and compassion, he has kept and sustained us. We should seek God to create in us a “right

Key Sermonic Points

1. We need God’s Mercy more than God’s Money (vs1)
2. We were created in Sin but not created to Sin (vs 5)
3. We can ask God to Clean up what we messed up (vs 7)

broke him down to build him up. This is evidence that we can rely on the Mercy of God to clean up what we’ve messed up.

Many people think the key to life is money. But Mercy is much more valuable than money. I’ve never had a hospital visit where the sick person asks God for money.

spirit” so we can pray, praise and serve him right.

Nuggets:

- Many heroes and she-roes of the bible messed up something in life. Consider: Adam, Eve, Abraham, Sarai, Noah, Rebekah, Moses, David, Paul.
- The longer we wait to seek help to clean up our mess, the worse we become
- Sin is rebellion against God and transgression of his law
- While those who are saved are free from the Penalty of Sin and from the Power of Sin, yet we are NOT free from the Presence of sin

Sometimes God has to break us down to build us up.
