

Pastoral Notes

“Early in the Morning”
Mk 16:1-7; “They Didn’t Get It” Mt 21:6-11.

What wonderful
Resurrection Sunday services we had. Our 7:30 sunrise sermon dealt with the walk of the women and the work of God early Sunday a.m.

The best thing that

At our 10:30 service we learned how most people following Jesus
and witnessing miracles, really didn’t get who he
was. They thought he was a prophet and
teacher sent from God
when, in fact, he was God who had come to teach. Many today still miss the Deity of Jesus and his requirement to show our love by our

Key Sermonic Points

1. The life of a Christian is not easy
 2. The Rugged Cross Benefitted Us
 3. The Empty Tomb Assured Us
1. We must see Jesus through the eyes of God not Man
 2. Don’t allow yourself to get ahead of Jesus (vs 9)
 3. Jesus was not just sent from God, he was God in flesh

ever happened to the church was Jesus’
resurrection. While his life was a model for us, his death saved us and
his resurrection is our hope for eternal life.
Jesus did die, but the
tomb was opened, not so

Nuggets:

- Everybody in your
Camp is NOT in your Corner
- Good things happen
early in the morning
- A bogus mock trial
took place Thursday
night, the crucifixion
was on Fri afternoon
but Early Sunday a.m.
Jesus defeated death
and the devil.
- The miracles got people’s attention, but what Jesus wanted
was their hearts.
- Beware of the crowds.
Where the crowd is
there is ‘untruth’.
Because some will
withhold truth, some
will embellish truth,
others will deny
truth.
- Being a man is about
how well you Lead,
Love, and Lead
- Being a woman is
about being saved,
sophisticated and
sanctified.
- Because many of our young men are locked
up and our young
girls are knocked up,
our babies are jacked-
up

Beware of Following
the Crowd
