

Pastoral Notes

“Inventory Your Blessings”- Deut 28: 1-6.

People spend more time cataloging complaints than ~~they do~~ counting ~~their~~ blessings. Think about it, you probably can't even remember all of your blessings -- that's just how good God has been.

Waking up every day knowing you are going to Heaven is a blessing. Even

Most of us are better at being faithful than being obedient, but that's where the Grace of God steps in. He loves you in spite of you but rewards and favor are tied to your good works. Let's stop pointing to our issues and problems as excuses for our behavior and instead, start pointing to the Cross. The cross can fix faults; patch problems; improve

Key Sermonic Points

1. Blessings will come to you
2. Blessings will overtake you
3. Blessings are 'conditional' but not 'countable'

if you're not feeling blessed, know that your setback is a requirement for your comeback.

Blessings from God don't require 'perfection' but does require 'diligence'. You must aim for the mark of holiness even if you don't hit it. God's Love is unconditional, but his blessings are conditioned upon how we strive to be obedient to his word.

issues and change circumstances. Take the time to Inventory your blessings.

Nuggets:

- Start thanking God the moment you wake up. They'll be plenty of time left in the day to complain.
- Just being a Christian is a blessing. No other religion has a Savior to die for them and pay their debt.
- A foundation of faith is having the assurance that the one you believe in has the intent, desire and power to bring to pass what they decree.
- Some religions serve idols they have to dust off and stand up. We serve a God who dusts us off and stands us up.

“If you had 10,000 hands you couldn't praise God enough; 10,000 tongues you couldn't thank him enough; $10,000 you couldn't pay him enough.”
