

Pastoral Notes

“Finding Our Jericho Voice” - Josh 6:1-5, 15-16.

A Church should not be merely consumed with its own comforts, concerned with its own blessings, or cognizant of its own needs. If so, a church “... will become an irrelevant social club with no moral or spiritual authority” as stated by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Just as the Israelites tells us won't make sense, but remember “God's ways are higher than our ways” (Isa 55:8). Also know that God will not tell you to do anything he won't equip and empower you to achieve.

The world has their backs turned to Christians but we must speak out to get their attention and respect. It was on our dime that the rules of marriage got changed, though we know God did

Key Sermonic Points

1. Sometimes what God tells you won't make sense.
2. God won't tell you to do what he won't empower you to achieve.
3. Christian soldier: You don't have to shoot, just Shout!

shouted down the Jericho wall, churches must find its Jericho voice to shout down walls of immorality and injustice in our nation. CTC, don't just sit, shout! Just as we found our Savior, let's find our voice and become the moral conscience of an immoral society.

When God speaks, be still, listen and then do what is spoken into your heart. Sometimes what God not make Adam and Steve nor Madam and Eve.

Let's find and use our voice to make a God ordained difference.

Listen to this week's powerful sermonic message

located in the Media section of this website.

Stay Blessed,
Pastor Robbie

Nuggets:

- A Jericho Voice is unashamedly righteous and unapologetically holy.
- “When the rudder no longer pushes against turbulent waters, and the helm abdicates its responsibility to turn to the right, when the moral compass ceases to provide direction, a nation becomes like a boat without a bow, a ship without a sail, a craft without a captain, aimlessly, recklessly and vicariously plotting its own course, a course headed for disaster and destruction”.
- We shout the inalterable, incorruptible, infallible word of God.

“A nation that does not subject itself to the righteousness of its creator will, itself, become subject to the unrighteousness it creates.” – Rev Robinson