

Pastoral Notes

'Can God be Trusted' 2Kings 18:1-7.

We had a blessed and spirit filled Mother's Day service where we posed the question 'can God be trusted'? The answer is simple, in all circumstances and at all times, we must have the knowledge and conviction to know that we can trust our God.

No matter how big the bible is you carry or how cute the cross is that you wear, at some point in life you will trust God. He put warm blood in your cold veins and breathed life into your empty soul. Yes, God can be trusted.

The enemy of your soul argues that because Christians get sick, divorce and die, you can't trust the promises of God. And because you can't be sure you will have a job next week, how can you be sure you'll have a home in heaven. My answer is simple. If God says it, I believe it.

There is nothing too hard for God. His

Key Sermonic Points

1. You can trust God to hear you
2. You can trust God to help you
3. You can trust God to fight for you

be challenged in the midst of your trials and tribulations, to make your mind up as to whether or not you will trust God.

The first trick of the devil was to try to get Eve to believe that God cannot be trusted. He said that God was not being truthful when he told Adam and Eve they would die if they ate from the tree in the midst of the garden. Eve found out the hard way what we now know. God is the truth and the devil is a liar.

When you think of all God has done for you it is easy to conclude you can promises in Jesus are always 'yes and Amen'. He desires to hear your prayers and petitions so that he can prove his word is valid and true by helping you. Because he fights your battles, victory is assured because he has never lost a fight.

The sermon is available on CD as well as our website. Let it bless you or someone else who needs to know God can be trusted.
