Sermon Title:

"Maybe Tomorrow."

Sermon Points

1. Whatever tomorrow brings you to, God will bring you through.
2. Tomorrow will be here with or without you.
3. When your will is God's will, your tomorrow will be better than your today.

Leader: As the pandemic grows so does the uncertainty of the future of 'normal life' as we have become accustomed to. The Scripture and the Holy Spirit helps us work through our uncertainties -- encouraging us to reflect on God's promise to be with us and provide strength to overcome whatever tomorrow brings. Joshua 1:9; Matt 28:20

Congregation: While tomorrow is not certain, God is. Obsessing about what may or may not happen can catapult us into our own personal prison of depression, confusion, and chaos. We are admonished not to worry ourselves about tomorrow, but instead put any concerns in God's hands. Matt 6:34; Philippians 4:6-7

ALL: Despite all our planning and goal setting efforts, ultimately, we cannot do anything of lasting value unless we proceed under God's will. Let us encourage each other to stay humble, trust God and submit to His will. Psalm 127:1; Proverbs 16:18; Mark 10:37.

Scripture Lesson: James 4:13-16 (NIV)

Leader: 13 Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money."

Congregation: 14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

ALL: 15 Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." 16 As it is, you boast in your arrogant schemes. All such boasting is evil. AMEN.
