Leader: It is a natural tendency to seek relief when we experience pain, suffering, distress, or agony. Only God can provide the grace, endurance, and sustainable relief we seek. He "is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think" – even heal us when we are hurting. 2 Cor 4:16-17; 1 Cor 2:9; Eph 3:20

Congregation: "Let go and let God" is a frequently used quote and encouraged behavior according to the scriptures. Bitterness is seething, constant, and exhausting – it inhibits our fellowship with God and each other. In contrast, let us seek the Lord to create a pure heart in us and give us the peace we seek. Hebrews 12:15; Psalm 51:10; John 16:33

ALL: The Lord does not ignore our hurt, neither should we. It is not God's desire that we are hurt and broken. He "is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Let us not trust in our own reasoning to remedy our hurt but rather, let the Lord be our guide. AMEN. Psalm 34:18; Proverbs 28:26

Scripture Lesson: Genesis 25: 28-34 (NIV)

Leader: 28 Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Congregation: 29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished. 30 He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom).

Leader: 31 Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright." 32 "Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?"

ALL: 33 But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob. 34 Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright. AMEN.
