- According to James 1:17 "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows".

God has chosen people to do his work. He chose this course of action for reasons only he knows and understands. From a human perspective, we may wonder if this was the best decision. After all, the sky's the limit concerning what God could have done. He could have chosen angels to speak to lost humanity. He certainly used them on many significant occasions throughout Scripture. Or God could have created a special category of messengers that would never fail him—a "sin-proof" instrument that would faithfully proclaim his Word. For that matter, God himself could have simply poked his face through the heavens and said, "Hello, world! I'm God, and you're not!" But God has chosen men and women to do his work among humankind.

As we seek to follow and be used by Jesus Christ, we need to utilize all that he has made available to us. One of the great blessings Jesus has given to his church and to us as individuals is the gifts of the Spirit.

There Are Four Greek Words That Refer to Spiritual Gifts These are the four Greek words that the Apostle Paul uses in First Corinthians chapter twelve that refer to spiritual gifts: charisma, pneumatikos, diakonia, and energemata. These words help us understand the nature of spiritual gifts.

1. Charisma: Gift of Grace

The word normally translated "gift" in the New Testament is the Greek word charisma. The plural form of charisma is charismata. Paul wrote.

Now there are different gifts, [charismata] but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:4 HCSB). The word charisma means "gift of grace" and refers to the gifts, or special abilities, God has given believers through the Holy Spirit. 2. Pneumatikos: Things of the Spirit

Pneumatikos is another word that is translated as "gift." We find it used in this context.

Now about spiritual gifts, [pneumatikos] brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant (1 Corinthians 12:1 NIV).

Although this word is often translated, "gift" the word actually means "spirituals," "spiritual things," or "spiritualities." The English translators often add the word, "gift" in the text. Some commentators feel this is a mistake because the word does not necessarily mean gift.

3. Diakonia: Service

Paul uses the Greek word, diakonia, which means, "service," to describe spiritual gifts. Paul used this word as follows.

And there are varieties of ministries, [diakonia] and the same Lord (1 Corinthians 12:5 NASB).

4. Energemata: Effect or Operation

A fourth word used in describing spiritual gifts is energemata, which means "effect" or "operation." We also read about this in First Corinthians 12. It says.

And there are diversities of activities, [energemata] but it is the same God who works all in all people (1 Corinthians 12:6 NKJV).

Whenever this word is used in the New Testament, it always refers to a supernatural work, or operation, by God.

A Basic Definition of Spiritual Gifts

When we put these words together we find that spiritual gifts are abilities that God gives to believers for service in the church – the body of Christ. They are "spiritual" gifts or gifts that operate in the realm, or sphere, of the Holy Spirit. While the source of each spiritual gift is God, this does not necessarily mean that a spiritual gift is the ability to do something supernatural.

Some of the gifts are natural abilities that are heightened and directed by the Holy Spirit. The ability is from God to do a work for God.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS OF KNOWLEDGE AND WISDOM

Lesson 6 – Speaking Gifts

- What comes to mind when you hear the word KNOWLEDGE?
- Greek "GNOSIS" means 'to know'
- Worldly knowledge is necessary to function in the natural realm, whereas Spiritual Knowledge is necessary to function in the Spiritual realm.
- Spiritual Knowledge is not just about knowing 'stuff' (Jeopardy). It is about knowing God's Word and Truths. (Not ability to 'recite' verses but to 'explain/interpret/ rightly divide' verses) [Prov 19:2]
- Spiritual Knowledge should not be confused with 'Belief'.
- While a "speaking" gift, the Spiritual Gift of Knowledge is also a "sharing" gift.

- What does the Bible teach about KNOWLEDGE?
 - People are destroyed for lack of Knowledge (Hosea 4:6-7)
 - Those with an intelligent heart & who are wise, seek Knowledge (Prov 18:15)
 - Knowledge and Wisdom go hand in hand (Prov 1:7; Prov 24:5; 1Cor 12:8; Isa 11:2)
 - To acquire the Spiritual Gift of Knowledge, one has to be seeking spiritual knowledge (Prov 15:14)
 - God intentionally withholds some things from us because he desires that we SEEK Knowledge then he reveals is to us (Daniel 12:4)
 - Knowledge is a great gift to have but must be used in love (1Cor 13:2)

 - Let's go to our Workbook Pg 27

Lesson 6 – Speaking Gifts

- What comes to mind when you hear the word WISDOM?
- Greek "Sophia"- one with expertise in particular domain or craft. Was central to the Hellenistic (worldly) Philosophy where this was seen as something 'learned' 'practiced' and 'refined'.
- In the church, however, this term refers to Divine Wisdom from on high.
- Wisdom can be viewed as 'knowledge applied'
- Wisdom is something that can be taught but not as a 'recipe', but rather as a 'process of good habits'. People can be taught "how to think" but not necessarily "what to think".
- The main source of Godly Wisdom is the Holy Bible and the main teacher is the Holy Spirit

- What does the Bible teach about WISDOM?
 - The Proverbs of King Solomon were written to share his Wisdom so others could gain Wisdom (Prov 1:1)
 - The Fear of the Lord is the BEGINNING of Wisdom (Prov 1:7)
 - If you lack Wisdom in any area you should simply ask God for it. This is a Gift he gives GENEROUSLY to all believers who seek it.
 - We should be careful to live as one who is wise (Eph 5:15-17)
 - When we teach or admonish others, it must be done based on Godly Wisdom given us to intimately know his Word (Col 3:16)
 - Wisdom is better than Gold (Prov 16:16)
 - With the Boldness and Wisdom of God, your adversaries will not be able to withstand nor contradict you (Luke 21:15)
 - The Spiritually Wise are greater than the Wealthy (Ecc 8:1)
 - Let's go to our Workbook Pg 29
