CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Ruth exhibited admirable selflessness, perseverance, and compassion -- demonstrating that God can do extraordinary things through our obedience and faithfulness. She was rewarded with God's favor, provision, and security. Ruth 1:14-18; 2:8-16; Acts 8:25-40

Congregation: As children of the Most High God, we have experienced ongoing love, grace and mercy. We are uniquely positioned to offer what may seem small but can be impactful acts of kindness. Scripture tells us to "let [our] light shine before others, that they may see [our] good works and glorify [our] Father which is in heaven." Gal 3:26-29; Psalm 82:6; Matt. 5:16

ALL: As believers of Christ, we've come to know God's love for us is unfathomable and unfailing for which we can never repay. By practicing gratitude every day, we can also stay mindful of the little things easily overlooked and taken for granted. 1 Thess 5:18

SCRIPTURE LESSON: 1 TIM 6:6-10 (NIV)

Leader: 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it.

Congregation: 8 But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. 9 Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.

ALL: 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. AMEN.
